

CORGI HomeHeat Express Fit Waiver

Last updated: 16th July 2021

Under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013, when contracts are considered to be agreed away from trade premises or at a distance, you have the right to cancel the contract within fourteen days of the delivery of the last of the goods.

There can be occasions however, when both the company and the consumer can make an “express request” confirming that they are happy for work to begin within the cool off period.

Please Note:

If you cancel this contract after work has started, we will charge you our reasonable costs for:

- (a) any work already carried out;
- (b) any equipment already installed and consumables used at your property.

If you wish for us to begin work within this cancellation period you must give us express permission, in writing, to do so. We would ask you to read the statement to the right and tick the checkbox to confirm that you understand the implications of giving this “express consent”.

I/We understand that ticking the box below does not affect my/our right to cancel the contract in the 14 day cancellation period which begins on receipt of all the goods described in the contract and accepted quotation (provided the installation is not completely finished).

I/We understand that if I/We cancel the contract within the 14 day cancellation period, I/We will be liable for any work performed up to the point of cancellation.

This may include reasonable costs for:

- (a) any work already carried out by CORGI HomeHeat, and
- (b) any goods already installed into my/our property.
